

Calling stallholders for new market

Stallholders are wanted for a seasonal community market in Royal Oak.

Hosted by CCS Disability Action, a non-profit organisation supporting people with disabilities, the market promises to be a community melting pot.

To demonstrate its commitment to building inclusive communities, CCS Disability Action wants stallholders who sell fresh fruit and vegetables, food and products.

Independent designers, artists and craftspeople interested in selling their work are also invited to apply.

Products grown, made or crafted locally, which are healthy or environmentally sound, are preferred.

As well as community stalls there will be volunteer projects to get involved with as well as music and talks throughout the day on sustainable living and gardening practices.

The first Royal Oak Market will be held on November 22 at 14 Erson Ave, Royal Oak.

For more information call 625-9378 or email susan.mcleod@ccsdisabilityaction.org.nz or linda.blair@ccsdisabilityaction.org.nz.

Applications close September 23.
